ABOUT PAGE

Hero Headline:
Own Your Joy

Subhead:
Making it easy to support Black-owned businesses every day.

Our Story:
Lillier was created to solve a simple problem. People want to support Black-owned businesses, but it is often hard to do consistently.

Shopping usually means visiting multiple websites, placing separate orders and paying multiple shipping fees. Over time, convenience wins and intention gets lost.

Lillier brings everything together in one place. One cart. One checkout. Thousands of Black-owned businesses offering the products people actually use every day.

Buying Black should not require extra effort. It should feel natural, accessible and rewarding.

Why Lillier Exists:

Black-owned businesses face real barriers to distribution, visibility and growth. Even brands with exceptional products struggle to reach customers at scale.

Lillier exists to change that.

We are building a retail platform that prioritizes ownership, quality and sustainability. By bringing Black-owned brands together under one roof, we make it easier for customers to shop with intention and for businesses to grow with consistency.

Every purchase is a vote for ownership. Every cart supports real people and real livelihoods.

Our Name:

Lillier is named after the founder's grandmother, Lillier Madison.

She believed that joy was not something handed to you. It was something you had to make for yourself.

You got to make your own self happy.

That belief lives at the center of Lillier. Ownership is joy. Independence is joy. Building something of your own is joy.

Closing:

Joy Is Something You Own

Support When We Need It

What to Expect:

When we work together, the goal is execution and results.

We focus on making decisions, moving work forward and turning ideas into action. Our role is to remove confusion, sharpen direction and support follow-through.

We prioritize clear goals, practical recommendations, timelines that respect capacity and accountability.

Community Page

Hero:

We Build Together

Body Copy:

Entrepreneurship can feel isolating, especially when we are navigating systems that were not built with us in mind. This community exists to support momentum, accountability and shared learning among Black founders who are serious about ownership.

Stories Page

Hero Headline:

Real Stories. Real Momentum.

Subhead:

Experiences from Black founders building toward ownership.

Opening Copy:

Stories motivate when they are honest.

We share stories to show what building actually looks like. The decisions, the uncertainty, the progress and the moments that change direction.

These stories help us feel less alone and more confident in our next steps. They remind us that momentum is built over time.
